SECOND: The principal office of the Society is located in Westerville, Franklin County, Ohio.

THIRD: The Society shall be operated as an organization described in section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 (the "Code") (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, and shall include among its purposes the promotion of the arts and sciences connected with ceramics by means of meetings for the reading and discussion of professional papers and for the publication of professional literature. In carrying out its purposes, the Society shall have all powers which may be conferred on a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Ohio.

FOURTH: No part of the net earnings of the Society shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its members, Directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Society shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article THIRD hereof. No loan shall be made by the Society to its Directors or officers. No substantial part of the activities of the Society shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except that the Society may make the election provided for in section 501(h) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) with respect to influencing legislation and only if it so elects, may make lobbying or grassroots expenditures that do not normally exceed the ceiling amounts prescribed by Code section 501 (h) (2) (B) and (D) (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law); and the Society shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or against any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Society shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

FIFTH: Except as otherwise provided herein, every person who is or has been a Director or officer of the Society is hereby indemnified by the Society against expenses and liabilities actually and necessarily incurred by the person in connection with the defense of either i) any action suit, or proceeding to which the person may be a party defendant, or ii) any claim of liability asserted against the person by reason of the person's being or having been a Director or officer of the Society, provided that the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Society. The Society does not, however, indemnify any Director or officer in respect to any matter to which the Director or officer shall be finally adjudged liable for misconduct in the performance of the Director's or officer's duties as such Director or officer, nor, in the case of a settlement, unless such settlement shall be found to be in the interests of the Society by i) the court having jurisdiction of the action, suit or proceedings against such Director or officer or of a suit involving the Director's or officer's right to indemnification, or ii) a majority of the Directors of the Society then in office other than those involved in such matter (whether or not such majority constitutes a quorum). The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to all rights to which any Director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law, and shall be interpreted so as to be consistent with the provisions of Ohio Revised Code section 1702.12, as the same may be amended or replaced.

Any assets of the Society not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio solely to such organization or organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for purposes described in section 501 (c) (3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue law), as said court shall determine.
